“ Aunt Carole was the kindest, sweetest person you would ever know. She let me stay with her during my teenage years and will be forever grateful and blessed to have had that time with her. I will miss you but know I will see you again in glory. □□□□

“ Carole was the sweetest most loving , caring and very special lady I have ever known. Carole was the best mother-in-law to my daughter Patti, and greatest “Grammy” to my grandchildren Jenna and Kyle. Carole was the perfect example of Christianity a shining light that I as her longtime friend, strive to live like. Carole’s beautiful light and sweet soul will be greatly missed.
