“ May the Lord fill your hearts with loving memories of Donna.

I remember the best of times, when we were but children at play, full of laughter and joy engulfed in the wonders of life that stood before us, and the true love of our families.

Once again, Donna can be that child as her footsteps can not be seen as the Lord carries her through the gates so that she stands before the Throne of God today and forever more. I sense the glow of peace and the joy within her heart, just as it was when we were but children.

I will be expecting to have that apple pie she owes me when we see one another again.

I will always remember you with love.
