Glenda was born in Henagar to the late Tom and Irene Lacy. For most of her life, she was known as Glenda Ruth and was a smart young women who accomplished much. At Sylvania High School, she was the class secretary, Valedictorian, Beta Club treasure, on the paper staff, as well as being a majorette and treasurer for the band. She was also chosen as the DAR "good citizen" of the class of 1960. At the age of 18 she started working at Fort Payne Bank. Even as the bank changed names, she stayed true to her character and was a diligent worker. She rose up and gained titles such as branch manager and assistant vice president. After retiring from AmSouth, Glenda worked another number of years at the AmSouth and Community credit union. She continued to serve her community as the book keeper and treasurer for Henagar Methodist Church, where she was a devoted member. Glenda loved her family and Sunday lunches were a staple in her house. Her family has peace knowing she has been reunited with her elementary school sweetheart, Howell, who she was married to for 61 years.

She is survived by:

Son: Joe McSpadden (Tracy)

Daughter: Lisa Shrader (Tim)

Grandchildren: Sydney King (Casey)

Clay Shrader (Amy)
