“ We were devastated to hear that precious Jessica lost her life in the tornado yesterday. It is hard to understand how this could happen, but we are hopeful that you will find comfort in knowing that so many are thinking about you and praying for all of you at this time of sorrow. Wish Aunt Dorothy and I could be with you to give you all big hugs and cry with you. We love you so much.

“ I remember Sweet Little Jessica mainly because whenever and where ever she saw me she would always give me a hug. I would tell her how sweet she was and how pretty she was and her smile always made me happy.
She played ball with my daughter, she graduated with my daughter, and we went to Church together for years.
Steve and Michelle are fine people and I am so very sorry that Jessica's life was cut short at such a young age. But I think she knew that many many people loved her, and many many people will miss her.
