“ To my Dearest Phyllis, The memories you gave me are beyond measure: from asking little Sean to spend the night with your boys and calling me at midnight to come pick him up cuz he missed his mom, and taking little Prissy shopping in the mall, buying all those dresses, blankies, and stuff, and pretending she was yours and asking me for forgiveness.. I laugh at the memories you have given me. Girl, you were an angel Unaware on this earth and you will ALWAYS be loved by me! May you rest in the arms of the angels Sweet Phyllis, You were More than an Angel to me, you were a God-Send!

“ I was just talking about Aunt Phyllis yesterday with my coworkers. I shared with them about the time Aunt Phyllis baked me a vanilla birthday cake with chocolate icing & the entire cake was covered in red hots. It was hard to see the chocolate icing because there were so many red hots. We laughed together when I told them how there were only a few others who ate the cake as is, pretty much everyone scrapped off the red hots!

Aunt Phyllis, you were a one of a kind lady & I will miss you very much. I look forward to seeing you again someday, I love you. To my cousins, I know that this loss is so very hard but you're in my thoughts & prayers. I love each of you & am so sorry for your loss.
