“ Ashley and I became friends several years ago and the first time I met Ashley, her mom was with her. I remember thinking she seemed so sweet. I saw her many times after that night and turns out she was very sweet. I always thought she was the kindest person. Her children were lucky to have her. Fly high sweet lady. ❤️

“ Sarah was just 12 when her Uncle Elbert (Joe) and I got married. She was a beautiful girl and grew into a beautiful woman. Sarah loved her family. Sarah, you will always be in our hearts. You truly are an angel! You leave a beautiful legacy for your children! May God comfort them and may they know you are at peace! Love and prayers to all 🙏❤️

Sarah was the best neighbor to me in GA. I was upset when the family moved. She and Jay had two amazing daughters that were always at my home too. Sarah grew the biggest sunflowers and best tomatoes. I ate so may tomato sandwiches my fingers blistered. She loved Jesus, her family and friends. She was such a giving person. So glad I got to talk with her a few months back. She is healed, Praise the Lord. Love to all.

I first became friends with Ms. Sara when she was a home health care provider for my Mom. I always knew Mom was in great hands when Sara was there. I don't think she would mind me telling that she took Mom to yard sales when she visited and her and Jay would even go to Moms on weekends and plant bulbs and flowers from their home! My friend, I will always miss you until we meet again! I love you!
