“ When people ask me about my childhood I usually always say, We didn't have a lot, no video games and things like that, we had the neighbors kids and baseball and our bikes, the neighbors kids was Vicky, Terry, Donna and Michael, I have always counted having the Cameron's kids ask my neighbors to grow up and having all them summers to play and pass the time with a wonderful thing. I am so sorry for your loss Michael, the only real comfort I have ever found in this world is through Jesus Christ, he is the great comforter
